Day 3: Sunday 9th October 2022

Canberra ~ Dubbo

This morning we tour the National Arboretum and The National Bonsai Collection of Australia, home to some of the finest miniature trees in the world and produced by some of Australia's leading bonsai artists. The unique collection includes a variety of traditional and modern styles, with world-class examples of both native and exotic species. As an art form, bonsai combine horticultural skills, artistic sensibility and a great deal of patience. They can be likened to living sculptures, requiring planning, constant attention and aesthetic vision. Finish this fantastic experience with a two course lunch before departing for our return trip to Dubbo.
