Your tour to join the celebration of the wonderful Autumn colours and seasonal produce of the Bright Autumn Festival starts this morning as we board our coach and make new friends. Travel south through Parkes, Forbes, West Wyalong and Wagga Wagga, crossing into Victoria at Albury and on to the Victorian Alpine High Country and your accommodation for the next four nights in Beechworth.

D which is a static display of cars and engines or motors that are more than 25 years old.

Stroll around and explore the Historic and Cultural Precinct of Beechworth. A collection of nationally significant buildings which tells the local story of how Australia grew and prospered. Wonder through the Court House, Telegraph Station, Burke Museum, Kelly Vault, Powder Magazine and join one or both of two guided walking tours. During the day, you may wish to grab a bite to eat from the iconic Beechworth Bakery (own expense). Return to your accommodation for a chance to freshen up before dinner.

Day 2: Friday 29th April 2022

Beechworth ~ Glenrowan ~ Greta ~ Milawa ~ Beechworth

Travel to Glenrowan to step into another era to an authentic replica of the Kelly Homestead. See the stark reality of the hardships that our forefathers had to endure as this colony was being settled. The walls and roof were lined with newspaper, hessian and calico. The floor was earth, usually consolidated with bullock's blood and the bark roof always leaked. Conditions were rough and life harsh with little or nothing to spare. Continue to Milawa and the famous Brown Brothers Winery to enjoy a one hour private wine tasting before exploring the estate on a guided historic building tour. Sit down for lunch with matched wines before returning to Beechworth for some free time before dinner at your accommodation.

Day 5: Monday 2nd May 2022

Beechworth ~ Yarrowonga

This morning we make our way along the North East Victoria Silo Art Trail. We stop in Gooramab, where we'll find two works of public art. The grain silos feature three works by Melbourne street artist Jimmy Dvate, notably of an endangered bird of prey from the area. Jimmy is passionate about conservation and is particularly keen to highlight the plight of endangered species. The Barking Owl is the most threatened owl in Victoria with Northeast Victoria a remaining stronghold for wild populations. Lunch will be served on a traditional paddle steamer while you cruise Lake Mulwala.

BLD

Spend the afternoon indulging while eating some chocolate and having a sneaky sip (or two) of whisky, as we visit Corowa Whisky and Chocolate. Set in a 1920's old flour mill, you can feed the animals, make your own giant freckle or just do some retail therapy and stock up on choccies for the grandkids... and yourself!

Tonight we are in Yarrowonga, we check into our new accommodation and then enjoy dinner.

Day 3: Saturday 30th April 2022

Beechworth ~ Bright ~ Gala Day ~ Beechworth

This morning travel through Myrtleford and into the home of the annual Autumn Festival, Bright, which is renowned for its beauty in every season. Today is Gala Day and the main streets are closed for all the fun of the festival. Live music fills the air as you wander past the street stalls. Witness the highlight of the festival, the Autumn Festival street parade, where the CBD is opened up exclusively for visitors for the Gala Day Carnival
