Dubbo ~ Leura

We get away from Dubbo nice and early this morning so that after a quick stop in Bathurst we can arrive in the Blue Mountains. Our first stop will be a chance to tick off that bucket list item and visit the Hydro Majestic. The Hydro Majestic spans over a kilometre atop a breathtaking escarpment in Australia's World Heritage-listed Blue Mountains National Park. From this lofty watch post encircled in swirling winter mists, the famously historic Hydro Majestic has surveyed the Megalong Valley and surrounding ridges for over one hundred years. It's teatime in the Blue Mountains and the grand tradition of the Hydro Majestic Afternoon High Tea awaits you served in the majestic Wintergarden Restaurant with panoramic views overlooking the Megalong Valley. After enjoying your afternoon tea there will be time to really explore with a guided history tour of the Hydro Majestic commencing in the Casino Lobby. The tour will take in history of the Casino lobby with its iconic domed roof, the magnificent Salon Due Thé and Cat's Alley, the elegant Majestic Ballroom and concludes in the Hydro Majestic Pavilion which showcases vibrant displays of Hydro's historical past along with boutique and regional food and wine from the Blue Mountains and its regions. Then it's only a quick drive up the road to check into your rooms at the award winning Fairmont Resort. There will be a bit of time to relax or to explore before dinner.

Day 2: Saturday 20th July 2024

Blue Mountains

After enjoying breakfast this morning, we will head over to Faulconbridge to visit the former home of Norman Lindsay, now a gallery featuring his paintings and garden sculptures. The former Lindsay home in Faulconbridge has so many stories, and all of them weave into the rich fabric of Australian post-World War I identity, cultural heritage, art and literature and the story of the Blue Mountains. Never one to shy away from controversy, artist and author Norman Lindsay shared this beautiful sandstone home with his wife Rose and their children. The house now showcases Norman Lindsay's many paintings depicting Bohemianism and Arcadian pantheism, his sculptures can be found in the sprawling gardens that wrap around his former home. You will see sculptures, illustrations and see where the cheeky characters of the children's classic, The Magic Pudding, were created. After enjoying the house and gardens there will be time in Leura to get some lunch before we head to Katoomba. There's no better way to enjoy the iconic views of the World-Heritage listed UNESCO Blue Mountains, than at Scenic
